WASHINGTON CITY.

The Troops in New Orleans.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Two members of the cabinet are authority for the statement that the troops will leave Louisiana this week or the first of next.

The Swiss Ministry.

It is considered that Schneider of the First National Bank of Chicago, has the best chance of the Swiss mission.

Mrs. Gaines' Lawsuit.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—The decree of the United States District Court of Louisiana, sustaining the claims of Myra Clarke Gaines against the city of New Orleans, commands the defendant to account to the master in chancery for all income from this property during their long possession. They are ousted from their titles and from all accumulations therefrom. This decision involves also heavy claims against the city, which has sold a large amount of the property in question with full warranty of title.

Appointments Agreed On.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—At the session of the cabinet to-day the appointment of Geo. A. Scheider, of Chicago, as U. S. Minister to Switzerland was agreed upon.

Upon recommendation of Postmaster General Key, it was determined to give the position of Assistant Attorney General for the Postoffice Department to A. A. Freeman, of Brownsville, Tennessee, vice Judge Spence, of Maryland, resigned. Mr. Freeman was the Republican candidate for Governor of Tennessee, and he, a few years ago, ran against Gov. Brown.

The New York Customs Irregularities.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Nearly all asked to investigate the New York Custom House have declined, and last night three new parties were telegraphed.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Two members of the commission to report on the New York custom house management, &c., have been agreed upon, namely, Solicitor Robinson of the Treasury Department, and Lawrence Turner of the New York firm of Moses Taylor & Co. The third member will also be a merchant.

The Embargo Raised.

The Consul General of the United States at Havana telegraphs that instructions have been sent to the Governor General to suspend all forcible measures in the collection of the 30 per cent. tax upon incomes from German subjects. There was only one case of any recent embargo of property of American citizens for payment of these taxes, and in that instance the property remains in possession of the owners.

Postal Contracts.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—The postoffice department to-day awarded the contract for mail service between Bismarck and Deadwood, in the Black Hills, 260 miles; the service to be performed in 60 hours, try-weekly; commencing May 1st and continuing until Sept. 30th, when the route will be supplied with permanent service for the usual term of four years. Mouroe Salisbury, of Salt Lake, secured the temporary contract at the rate of $14,000 per annum.

American Consul Released.

On hearing of the imprisonment of the American consul at Acapulco, Mexico, last month by the revolutionary authorities, President Hayes ordered a man-of-war to proceed to that port and to demand his release. The naval commander reports the consul released.

The Question of an Extra Session.

On inquiry at the Executive Mansion, it was ascertained that there is no truth in the story published in the Philadelphia Herald to the effect that the President had made a proposition to leading Democrats for a conference with an equal number of Republicans for the purpose of avoiding an extra session of Congress, and promising to withdraw the troops from the South in the event of certain conditions being complied with.

Sherman to Sheridan.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Gen. Sherman has telegraphed a letter to the Secretary of War relative to the withdrawal of troops in New Orleans to Gen. Sheridan, at Chicago, with instructions to have the order executed as directed. Gen. Sherman late last night received a telegram from Gen. Auger reporting everything quiet at New Orleans.

State Railroad Claims.

The First Attorney General has accepted Senator Gordon's construction of the law to pay for over charges on the Western and Atlantic Railroad State property, and has requested Quartermaster General Meigs to compute the amount due the State on this construction. The amount is something over $200,000.

Appointed Clerk.

T. H. C. Smith has been appointed clerk of the Treasury, and will assume the duties of the office.

Proposed Cruise.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Instructions have been sent to the Secretary of the Treasury at San Francisco directing that the revenue cutter Rush shall commence a summer cruise along the coast about the 1st of May. The Rush will pay particular attention to American interests in Alaska and on the otter grounds and watching the seal fisheries.

A telegram was received at the Treasury Department from Gen. O. O. Howard, of the War Department, saying that since the troops were removed from Alaska, instead of a revenue cutter being placed on duty to watch our interests at that station heavy vessels should perform such service, but it was decided that a revenue vessel will be all that is necessary. The Rush, is well armed, and should it be found that further force is necessary a man-of-war will be sent to the otter and seal grounds.

Ordered to California.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Surgeon Alfred A. Woodhull has been ordered to duty in the department of California.

Naval Instructions.

The Secretary of the Navy has issued a circular saying that pay officers of the navy detached from duty involving monetary and property responsibilities will forward to the department before proceeding to enter upon other like trusts and duties. Certificates from accounting officers of the Treasury testifying that their accounts have been examined and that there are no checks on account of past duty, nor any apparent present indebtedness existing against them. They will in no such case be permitted to enter upon a new sphere of duty in the absence of such certificate without satisfactory explanations and special permission of the department.

Promoted.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—J. K. Upton, chief clerk of the independent treasury division, has been appointed chief clerk of the Treasury Department.

Randall's Denial.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Speaker Randall denies the sensational stories of the President's propositions to him and others to avoid an extra session. He never heard of the thing except in the newspapers.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Chinese supply most of the intoxicating beverage to the British Columbia Indians.

Booth, the great fisherman, has started a salmon cannery on Fraser river, and has taken Chinese from Seattle to run it.

Telegrams from Ottawa announce that six parties of surveyors will be formed to locate the line of railway from Burrard Inlet to the Rocky Mountains.

British Columbia is trying to get a loan to consolidate its floating liabilities to the amount of half a million or so. It is said that many of these debentures are in pawn at [illegible] bank.

THE CONTEST ENDED.

Success of the Commission.

Packard will Quietly Withdraw with the Troops.

Exciting Scenes in the Nicholls Legislature.

The Commission Leave for Home.

Withdrawal of Troops.

CHICAGO, April 21.—The following was sent from headquarters military division of Missouri to Gen. Augur to-day:

CHICAGO, April 21, 1877.

To GEN. C. C. AUGUR, New Orleans—By direction of the Lieut. General the following telegraphic order from General of the Army is forwarded for your action and guidance. Please report by telegraph the execution of the order:

WASHINGTON, April 21, 1877.

P. H. SHERIDAN, commanding division of Missouri, Chicago, Illinois—You will please order the troops now posted at or in the immediate vicinity of the State house in New Orleans to the U. S. barracks on Tuesday April 24, at 12 M. precisely, and report the fact to these headquarters. Copies of the order of the President and Secretary of War will come to you by mail, and another copy will be sent to Gen. Augur direct. (Signed)

W. T. SHERMAN, Gen'l.

R. C. DRUM, Ass't Adj't Gen'l.

Nicholls' Magnanimity.

NEW ORLEANS, April 21.—A committee from the Packard legislature waited upon the commission to-day and requested their friendly offices in securing from the Nicholls government some compensation for the policemen and employes who have remained faithful to Packard. The commission assured them they would endeavor to meet their wishes, and immediately requested an interview with Nicholls and a number of prominent Democrats. The subject was favorably considered, and Nicholls, with the advice and consent of his associates, promptly offered to devote the governor's contingent fund to this purpose. This fund amounts to between $30,000 and $40,000, and was appropriated to aid Nicholls in establishing his government. This prompt aid to Republican employes will provide for their immediate wants, and remove much disaffection from among them. The commission seemed highly gratified at the absence of resentment on the part of the Nicholls party.

Accepts the Situation.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—It is stated that a telegram has been received here from Wayne McVeagh saying that Packard will give up the contest without further defense, and that on Tuesday, the day on which the troops will be removed, he will publish a letter to the public similar to that of Chamberlain's.

Going Over to the Winning Side.

NEW ORLEANS, April 21.—In the Nicholls Legislature, Messrs. Demerais and Gault of St. Landry, Cole of St. John, Simms and Dickenson of St. James, and Snoer of Iberia, were sworn in, making 75 returning board members in the House. Several returning board members who were not elected by the election commissioners' returns have resigned their claims. Murray, sergeant-at-arms of the Packard House, was at Odd Fellows' hall this morning, where at noon about 500 people gathered in lobbies and in the street. Some of the representatives who went over say they hold the balance of power in the matter of electing a U. S. Senator.

Kellogg on Packard.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Ex-Gov. Kellogg, in reply to a question whether Packard is legal Governor of Louisiana, says the force against him is so great he will not be able to hold out longer. He cannot say just what will be his course under the circumstances; thinks he will quietly withdraw, without provocation of battle or bloodshed.

The Southern Press.

NEW ORLEANS, April 21.—Commenting on the order for removal of troops, the Times says: Hayes has carried out his policy to a fuller extent than could have been expected, and with this culmination of it has been secured the public pledge of support from the legislature. Nothing more remains but to clear away the debris and lay the foundation of a new structure. This seems to be a very appropriate place to say "let us have peace."

Affairs at New Orleans.

Governor Packard is still at the St. Louis hotel with his police force, ten or a dozen members of his legislature and his personal staff, who remain with him to see the end, which is evidently near. It seems generally understood the State House will be surrendered to Nicholls as early as next Monday or Tuesday.

Republican Opinions.

This afternoon Republicans say, notwithstanding the adverse decision of the President regarding the claims of the Louisiana Republican government, Packard and the brave and faithful men who surround and support him have earned the admiration and respect of all who can appreciate true heroism. Chosen Governor by the votes of a majority of his fellow citizens, his claim to that high office, resting on the same basis which seated the President, Gov. Packard resisted alike enticements of personal advancement and threats of personal danger, and stands firm to his post. He and his supporters, the last representatives of the Republican party in the South, unwilling to believe desertion would come from a quarter which properly owed support to Gov. Packard, have faithfully awaited, day after day for that aid which, according to his understanding of the constitution of the United States, was unquestionably due. Failing to receive this aid, his choice now rests between submission to force and resorting to civil strife. In such a dilemma there is but one course for a patriotic citizen, and such Gov. Packard has always shown himself.

Good Bye.

NEW ORLEANS, April 21.—The Commission closed their labors to-day and left for Washington via Mobile. The results achieved by them are more complete than could have been anticipated, and the special feeling even among intelligent Republicans is that these results will be of immense benefit to the State. The commission have been more than ordinarily circumspect. They have devoted themselves in a most laborious manner to their work, in their innumerable interviews with delegations and committees, and individuals of both parties, they being cautious and patient. It is understood that an ovation was tendered them by people of this city, but it was declined with thanks.

The Call of the House.

Mr. P. J. Tresevant, Clerk of the Nicholls House, furnished the commission with the following statement of membership, which was included in their telegram to the President this afternoon: Total number of constitutional House, 120; number returned by returning board, 117; number thrown out by returning board, 3; number of returning board members now answering roll call, 86; number of members elected and not returned by the board, but whose opponents have withdrawn and acknowledged their claims, 11; number elected now occupying their seats but not returned by board, 9; members filed and returned who have not answered to call of the House, 13; number answering roll call to-day, Republicans 42, Democrats 64; Senate, total number 36; present to-day 33; absent, Harper, Wakefield, Dumont, all Republicans. The Senate stands, Republicans 16 present; Democrats 20 present.

The President's Views.

CHICAGO, April 21.—The Tribune's Washington special says: Everything indicates that the removal of troops from New Orleans on Wednesday next will be peaceful. The President believes the Southern question solved, and he expects his policy to be vindicated. He is not perfectly sure that some disturbances may not ensue on the withdrawal of troops, but Nicholls' friends have to-day assured the President that Nicholls can prevent any mob and can command the situation.

The Opening Chorus.

NEW ORLEANS, April 21.—At 2 o'clock great excitement prevailed. Republican members dropped in one by one during the morning session, and at 2:30 P. M. loud cries from without indicated something unusual, and there was great commotion all over the House. A deafening shout arose as the tall form of ex-Gov. Warmoth moved up the central aisle. When silence was restored, Warmoth said:

Mr. Speaker—I appear here with a number of my colleagues for the purpose of taking our seats in this House. In a caucus of Senators and Representatives a resolution was adopted that it was useless to further continue the controversy. We have no apologies to make. We have been whipped in the battle, but have at least preserved our self-respect in an honorable contest, and are prepared now to offer allegiance only to the existing government and fairly co-operate in anything which may be suggested.

Browster, of Ouachita, who was returned by the board, on resigning his claims to his seat, said that there is not one principle that he had advocated in ten years which had not been embodied by the Democratic party, and he hoped that if this was sincere the scenes of Ouachita last autumn never would be re-enacted. The Republican party had elected their President, and had compelled the Democratic party to adopt Republican principles, and he thought this was glory enough.

Johnson, of DeSoto, a returning board member, in a short speech, said: "All I say is, just give Johnson his mileage, and let him go home. Elect your best man; don't elect a man who will trade off the Democratic party, like the Republican party was traded off."

Henry Blair (colored), of Morehouse, said he stood by the Republican ship as long as it was in sight, but as it had entirely disappeared from sight he wished to tender his resignation, and he hoped when he returned home his constituents would rejoice that he had not done any more harm than he had done. He believed he was right, and that he was constitutionally elected, but finding himself in the wrong, he came forward to resign his claim.

Holt, of DeSoto, also withdrew his claim to a seat.

Louisiana Legislature.

Long before their arrangements were consummated a number of the Packard members had taken seats in the Nicholls legislature. Subsequently a concurrent resolution was passed in the Nicholls legislature, paying Republican members who were not elected but returned by the returning board, their mileage and per diem as contestants.

A notable feature of the proceedings upon the floor of the Nicholls house was the withdrawal of seven Democratic members who had been seated subject to contest and who yielded their seats, introducing colored Republican members who claimed seats on the face of the returns.

A Legislator Caned.

Before the house assembled this morning Kenschan, Democratic member from Plaquemine parish, who was unseated by an arrangement admitting Republicans, called the house to order informally, whereupon Kidd, Democrat, in a feeling address presented a handsome gold headed cane to William Ridgeway, a colored member from Concordia parish who had been unseated upon a contest, but who was one of the first to yield to a colored contestant in the interest of adjustment.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

Panic in Roumania.

VIENNA, April 21.—Quite a panic occurred in Roumania about the Turkish invasion. The Roumanian government has applied to the powers, and is becoming more pressing in its demand to be saved from Circassian invasion. They are remonstrating against the occupation of Roumania by Turkish troops. The answer has not a reassuring tone, Turkey saying the passage of Turkish troops to the Roumanian side would depend upon Turkish military affairs, but that if this happens in consequence of the entry of Russian troops the Porte declines any responsibility, Roumania being now turned into a theater of war.

LONDON, April 21.—A Vienna dispatch says Roumania cannot prevent the passage of Russian armies through her territory, as she has vainly sought support to do so from the powers, but she will rigorously abstain from armed participation if Turkey does not cross the Danube also, and will herself occupy Kalafat with her own troops to prevent Russia from securing that position. But if Turkey persists in its proposed action, Roumania will be compelled to cast her lot with the only power capable of affording her protection against such a terrible calamity. Roumania's position is one of imminent peril.

The War's Delay—War Inevitable.

LONDON, April 21.—A special from Pera says it is reported that Russia has decided to send a second circular to the powers and await a reply before declaring war. The bad condition of roads in Asia is considered the cause of the apparent hesitation.

A Paris correspondent says: "I hear, on good authority, that in St. Petersburg, Constantinople and London the most authoritative diplomatists believe that war must come. No action is being taken in either city to avert the catastrophe.

BUCHAREST, April 21.—The Russian general and staff has left Kischeneff for Ungheni and Scutari.

The cavalry force is marching toward the Danube. The artillery is concentrating at Ungheni, the infantry is marching in the direction of Choty, Scutari and Ungheni.

Mutual Understanding.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 21.—The Agence-Russe, referring to the possible Austrian occupation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, says a complete agreement exists between the Austrian and Russian powers. Postal authorities have been notified that steamers heretofore plying between Odessa and Constantinople have again commenced running.

Will Take a Hand.

BERLIN, April 21.—It is believed the Czarowitch, who accompanies the Czar to Kischeneff will remain with the army, and either be attached to the headquarters or command a corps of the Guard when mobilized.

Strict Neutrality.

Now that the European war is imminent the administration is considering the necessity of strict enforcement of the neutrality laws. Instructions to Kasson will doubtless call his attention to the necessity of negotiation for a commerce treaty with Spain which shall abolish present discrimination duties upon exports from the United States to Cuba.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Bank of England.

LONDON, April 21.—The amount of bullion withdrawn from the Bank of England on balance to-day was £67,000.

Mail Steamer Wrecked.

BREST, April 21.—The mail boat plying between this place and Ushart has been wrecked. Eight passengers and the entire crew were drowned.

In no Hurry.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 21.—France has informed the Porte that she does not intend to send, like England, at present an ambassador here.

NOVA SCOTIA.

Supposed Lost.

HALIFAX, April 21.—The schooner Nimbrus, from Liverpool via Nova Scotia for Barbadoes, three months ago, has not since been heard from, and the vessel and crew of six men are supposed to be lost.

SOUTH AMERICA.

Another Revolt.

PERNAMBUCO, April 21.—A revolt has broken out in Paraguay, and President Don Jono Bontisa Gill and his brother have been assassinated. The conspirators were routed.

An animated debate is in progress in the columns of the London Times as to whether England can maintain the supremacy in the cotton manufacture in competition with France. Mr. Hugh Mason, an authority, has expressed his opinion that England cannot at all withstand the greater cheapness of the French product.

TWEED'S STATEMENT.

NEW YORK, April 21.—The committee appointed by the State Senate to investigate the charges against Senator Woodin held a secret session at Fifth Avenue hotel this morning and then proceeded to Ludlow street jail to see Tweed.

NEW YORK, April 21.—Tweed, before the committee to-day, produced a letter of Townsend, setting forth for the benefit of the committee the reasons why Tweed should not testify before them about Senator Woodin, and that he (Townsend) had advised Tweed not to testify. His reasons for so doing are embodied in testimony already given. He refers to the Woodin appropriation, and said that in 1872 Tweed testified that he never paid a dollar to secure the passage of the charter as obviating any further necessity of testimony on the subject now.

Tweed's Revelations.

Tweed appeared before the committee and submitted a written statement disavowing any responsibility for the publication in the World of alleged synopsis of his confession, and declined to answer any questions in regard to matters embraced in said article. On being asked were there two parties in the Senate, he answered yes; there were two and a half parties. Knew Senator Woodin intimately; knew Winslow well. Several questions were then put concerning the vote on the passage of the charter, and he answered these inquiries, but when approached on the question of bribery, he at once declined to answer, and refused to say whether or not he had paid any money to Hastings on the grounds previously stated. On being asked which reason of several given in his communication, he again declined, but afterwards answered on the first two reasons, i. e., it was against public policy and it might criminate himself. He declined answering all questions about payment of money directly or indirectly. Do you decline to answer a request one concerning bribery in the charter? I respectfully do.

Question—Was there a pool made up in New York to put the charter through? Answer—There was.

Question—Who contributed to it? Tweed regarded these as personal matters, and would answer no questions concerning disposition of money.

In reply to the question whether he would make any statement in reference to the Senate resolution, he answered simply, not at present, but at the proper time I shall answer. It was my wish that nobody but myself and counsel for the people, should see the documents taken to Albany. I think nobody else has seen them. About ten days elapsed between the introduction of the Tweed charter and its passage. There were other members in the legislature besides those named, who advocated the passage of the charter. I knew John and Andrew Garvey and Ingersoll, but decline to say whether they or any body else took money to Albany to aid in securing the passage of the charter. Tweed spoke bitterly of these three men. There was a pool formed in New York for its passage. I refuse to answer any questions in connection therewith or make any statement which this commission is here to get. By the half party in the House I have meant the young Democracy. It never can come to full growth. I will make a full statement when it will benefit the people the most. There were many charters before the House. I talked with Woodin and Winslow, who knew the general scope of the Tweed charter. None but New York men could understand its details. Nobody now a public official spoke to me about his liability to indictment for voting for the Tweed charter. I decline to say whether anybody has approached me on the subject, or whether I have papers on the subject. I know Hugh Hastings, the proprietor of the Commercial Advertiser, but remember very little about his connection with the business. What I do remember I decline answering. I never lent or furnished $20,000 for the purchase of a private house in Fifth avenue. The Republican press was anxious to pass certain registration laws, and several Democratic Senators gave their votes for such laws as a part of the consideration for their votes on the charter. Tweed was allowed to correct the stenographer's notes.

Tweed then recounted how he decided, by advice of counsel and the Attorney General, to give up all his effects, and tabulated what he had to say, with the understanding that nobody outside should see it, and that it be burned if not approved. He promised corroborative evidence. He did this, not to affect legislation, but his release. He has long enough protected others' reputations and positions and had enough of confinement. If the Attorney General uses him as a witness, he is to be discharged. The World's astonishing statement was mostly fiction, with but a few facts. He was ready to give evidence in court. He has no interest in politics and never expects to have any. J. D. Townsend, his counsel, testified that he gave Tweed's statement to the Attorney General in person; never showed it to anybody; he gave the World reporter nothing about it. Only the Attorney General and necessary counsel can see it. He read the headings to one gentleman, but the conversation was strictly private. The committee then adjourned to Fifth Avenue Hotel.

Hastings Rises to Explain.

In the Tweed investigation this evening Hugh J. Hastings acknowledged having received a check from Tweed in 1870 for purely business purposes and in no way connected with legislative matters. He and Tweed had been engaged in stock transactions and this check was given to close the account. He knew of no money being spent personally for the passage of bills and had no conversation about it with Tweed. He knew A. D. Barbour very well; did not recollect having any conversation with him in regard to the Tweed charter. As chairman of the Democratic State committee in this city, Samuel J. Tilden was in receipt of moneys from Tweed to bring about the results of 1868. He stated this from general information, not of his own knowledge. It was agreed that all reference to Tilden be stricken from the minutes. The witness declared there was no understanding with Tweed at any time as to the disposition of moneys received from him. It was for himself alone. The investigation adjourned till Monday, when Winslow, Vanschaick and others will be examined.

RELIGIOUS ITEMS.

The members of the M. E. church of Jacksonville contemplate giving a festival and concert shortly, for the purpose of raising funds with which to purchase a library for the Sunday School.

The Universalist State Convention will be held eighteen miles from Halsey, commencing Thursday, June 7, 1877. Conveyances will be in attendance at Halsey on Wednesday and Thursday to carry parties to the place of meeting.

At the session of Puget Sound Presbytery last week, Rev. J. R. Thompson reported the organization of South Union Church in Thurston county, with twelve members; also the election of one ruling elder; also a church at Newcastle, with 23 members, and the election and ordination of three elders and two deacons. Both congregations having also duly incorporated under the Territorial law.

A GRASSHOPPER SUFFERER.—Ben Jonson said of Shakspeare, "He is of no age, but for all time." This description fits also the "dead beat," who has the same habits in every country and in every age. A Minnesota paper, for instance, tells of one:

Would it not look full as well if that fellow who wears glasses and took away his load of seed wheat, furnished by the State yesterday, did not spend from five to ten dollars playing billiards every time he comes to this village?

The members of the Virginia legislature who enacted the bell-punch whisky law to register the number of drinks sold, have been thrown into a state of consternation by the information that their action will raise the price of liquor.

OREGON.

The Polk county paper hears of a number of people from its locality who are preparing to move to Eastern Oregon.

In Lane county the grand jury returned a true bill against John Coggswell and Harvey Kanoff, for the murder of Scott Osborn.

Several persons have gone from Empire City to Siuslaw with a view of establishing a salmon fishery, if they find the outlook favorable.

G. W. Lawson writes to the Mercury that the cause of high taxes in Salem is a "pernicious consequence" of drawing party lines in municipal affairs.

Mart Ballard, brother of Dr. D. W. Ballard, of Lebanon, arrived from Nebraska a few days ago. He brought his family along and expects to stay.

The executive committee of the State Agricultural Society has awarded the contract for the Society's printing for the ensuing year to A. L. Stinson of Salem.

Walter Mulkey, with his family, from Johnson county, Mo., arrived at the residence of his brother, Charles Mulkey, in Benton county, a few days ago.

Mr. Wm. Brown, late candidate for sheriff in Baker county, has purchased the McDaniel mill and toll-road near Humboldt Basin, and will soon take possession of the same.

The Odd Fellows of Lebanon will celebrate the 58th anniversary of Odd Fellowship in the United States at their new and elegant hall on the 26th inst. by giving a grand sociable.

Last week Messrs. French & Co., of Dalles, forwarded to Grant county and the [illegible] of Wasco county, 130,000 pounds of merchandise. This is the largest amount ever shipped by them in one week since they have been in business at the Dalles—some ten years.

Says the Baker Democrat: "In this section of the country we have never known a man, either a laborer or a mechanic, who was honest, industrious and sober, and wanted to work, to remain long out of employment." About so in every county in Oregon.

G. W. Lawson, in a recent number of the Daily Statesman, has a communication on which he urges the practicability of the Mount Jefferson pass through the Cascade mountains, popularly known as the Minto [illegible] route. [illegible] this is a practicable route for a railroad.

[illegible] was among the very first white women, being about the eighth in number, to locate in Astoria, arriving here in 1847 with her husband, and remained here until 18[illegible] when they removed to California. She was on a visit to her son J. T. and her daughter, Mrs. J. G. Hostler, in [illegible] at the time of her death.

This is a good [illegible] which we take from a Dorval paper: There are some young men in Dorva its out of employment. "[illegible] their own volition; not because they are not willing to work, providing they could get the right kind; not because there are no openings; but for the reason they have set up their own standards of labor, and never [illegible] do anything that a [illegible] such as [illegible] in potatoes, [illegible] a trade, etc., they [illegible] the street corners during the day time; go home to their meals regularly, and depend upon the old folks for a night's lodging. Boys, this is not to your credit.

The credit of Idaho is now better than at any time since the Territory was organized. Territorial warrants are now worth 85 cents.

The Kellogg property at Seattle was sold at auction, the other day, for $4,000, by Rev. D. Bagley. The general estimate of value was $6,000 or $7,000.

As a vague evidence that the Olympia-Tenino railroad still lives, rumor has it that the company is rallying a certain able capitalist for means to prosecute the work.

A young man named Julius Van Winkle, engaged as a teamster, was crushed to death near Kelton on the 8th inst., while coupling two freight wagons together. His mother and two sisters are said to be living at Albany in this State.

An important suit is on trial before court at Olympia. It is the case of the Northern Pacific railroad against the sheriff of Thurston county, to restrain him from collecting taxes on the roadbed and lands of the company in this county. It will decide others of the same nature in the several counties through which the line of the road runs.

A Mr. Chenoweth, of Lewis county, W. T., has come to grief by going upon a school section in that county to make improvements. He has made a long resistance to a suit for his ejectment, at the instance of the government, which has resulted in his being mulcted in one dollar damages and costs, the latter being a snug sum.

The Vancouver Independent says: "A sad accident occurred in the country the other day; a little daughter of Mr. Harris, of Brush Prairie, went to a well to draw water, fell in, and before she could be rescued was drowned. The mother being alone at the time, descended herself into the well on a ladder, but the water was too deep for her and she came near being drowned herself before she got out. Mr. Harris came and also went down after the unfortunate girl but was unsuccessful. Robert Brandon having arrived, stripped off his outer garments and dove bravely into the well, determined to bring her out, which he did, but she had been too long in the water, and all efforts to restore her were futile. She was about eight years old."

EDUCATIONAL.

The number of school districts in Polk county is 42; school children, 2,560. Amount of school fund for last year, $6,516 29.

MONDAY MORNING, APRIL 23, 1877.

A HOPELESS SCHEME.

In order to get British Columbia into the compact which created the Dominion Government, the politicians of Canada who had that scheme in hand, were obliged to make certain large promises to our neighbors of the western British province. The chief of these promises was an agreement to build a railroad from the Dominion capital to the Pacific coast. On both sides there was great eagerness. The Dominion politicians were in a humor to grant anything; the representatives of British Columbia caught at the opportunity to demand a Pacific railway. It was therefore easy enough to get into a melting mood over a big dinner at Ottawa, and, after the generosity of the contracting parties had been warmed up to large dimensions with [illegible] of old vintage, to declare it a bargain. British Columbia came into the confederation, and ever since she has been hugging [illegible] very similar to that delusive phantom of hope that one of our orators a good while ago made a subject of certain wise observations. To put the matter in plain words, British Columbia has been clamoring for the [illegible] and the Dominion can't build [illegible] that wilderness of lakes, [illegible] snows, deserts and mountains, [illegible] railroad, is discovered to be a mighty [illegible]. Even now the Dominion government is in a bad way with its budget for [illegible] expenses; it has already gone far in [illegible] construction of great works which do not [illegible] expenses, and to seriously undertake [illegible] scheme for a railway to the [illegible] would bring bankruptcy and utter [illegible]. The London Times takes up the subject [illegible] the construction of the road [illegible] intimates that such an en[illegible] foolish price to pay for an[illegible]. It says further:

> [illegible] of constructing the line are [illegible] insuperable; the traffic [illegible] completed, would not pay [illegible] of carriage, while the mainten[illegible] permanent way would be an [illegible]; and it is morally certain that [illegible] of the year the line would [illegible] closed. Yet the strongest [illegible] upon the Dominion of Canada [illegible] undertaking.

[illegible] of the Times that the [illegible] possibly be performed, and [illegible] government would be perfectly [illegible] in abandoning so impracticable a [illegible] which as fulfillment is impos[illegible] is given that every moral ob[illegible] by the indemnifica[illegible] for any losses it may [illegible] of the failure of [illegible] to keep the agree[illegible] restoring the province to its [illegible]. But it seems that our [illegible] not yet give it up; [illegible] over their judgment, [illegible] as if their readers [illegible] of the under[illegible]. Word is said to come [illegible] surveying party will be [illegible] from this side; [illegible] demonstrations of this [illegible] is intended sim[illegible] of the people of British [illegible] thousand dollars a year [illegible] a cheap defence against [illegible] that otherwise [illegible] by the provincials against [illegible]

[illegible] END OF IT.

[illegible] is solved at last. The [illegible] recovered every Southern [illegible] States which con[illegible] test gave rise [illegible] called "the [illegible] to dispute [illegible]. The policy of Hayes [illegible] and let him [illegible]. In all those sixteen [illegible] party therefore has vir[illegible]. Everything is in its [illegible] forth it has the full [illegible]. At present there is [illegible] the South. There can [illegible]. If the Democrats [illegible] is known as the [illegible] Republican organiza[illegible], will be possible, [illegible] themselves to an [illegible] protect the colored [illegible] the reappearance of the [illegible] the South need not be [illegible] the nature of things [illegible] long be post[illegible] talents in [illegible] kept in one party, [illegible] in one party there [illegible]. A district may have [illegible] majority, but it can send [illegible] Congress, yet it contains [illegible] to go. Slighted by their [illegible], they will organize a [illegible] for an opposing organiza[illegible] at once.

[illegible] there are who are not [illegible] the abandonment of the rem[illegible] Republican party in the South, [illegible] but what could be done? [illegible] in the old policy. If [illegible] now, there will be [illegible] to blame for it. No [illegible] appeal to the country [illegible] "oppressed" and "prostrate" [illegible] put this thing out of poli[illegible] be the final result.

[illegible] Northern journals of prominence [illegible], including such newspapers [illegible] Commercial and New York [illegible] trusted correspondents into [illegible] to gather information as [illegible] condition of affairs, political, in[illegible] and social. Of Southern politics we [illegible] more than enough. Passing over [illegible] communications on this topic, so stale and [illegible], readers may attend with interest to [illegible] said concerning the industrial condi[illegible] of the country. The Tribune's letters aver [illegible] the negro is still the working man every[illegible] in the Southern States. The Southern [illegible], it is asserted, still has a horror of all [illegible] labor, and especially of farm work. [illegible] will not see a single white man at work [illegible] the fields, a correspondent declares, on the whole journey from Richmond to Charleston. The white man will keep store or practice a profession; but there is nothing like the systematic industry among the whites of the South that creates the wealth of the white population of the Northern States.

A writer who doesn't send his name, possibly because he's too modest, desires us to print a long communication to which he has given the title, "In Dream Land." The subject is slightly too ethereal. If he will write something of interest about pigs, poultry, turnips or timber, it shall be printed. About the best thing one can do who wants to write matter that will receive attention is to shake off the night-mare that oppresses him in dream land, and plume his genius for a flight into the sober realm of potato-planting or [illegible]-making. If he can do anything on any of these or other numerous topics of a [illegible], he will get readers enough.

Woful stories have been told of the misgovernment of New York city and the frightful consequences of ring rule; and no doubt the facts are sorry enough. But here is Forney's Press with the assertion that Philadelphia is the worst governed city in the country. It states that 8,000 houses in the city are untenanted or occupied by families who, unable to pay rent, are permitted to remain on condition that they protect the premises from waste or injury. The Press also says that the city debt is rolling up frightfully under a corrupt ring, and that taxes are at a ruinous rate. The city is under the government of the party with which the Press is associated, but that paper does not spare its exposures

The Department of State at Washington has recently recovered at a cost of $500 the original journal of Mason and Dixon, the English surveyors who, in 1763 7, laid out the celebrated line of demarcation that bears their name. It was discovered among a quantity of old papers in the Parliament buildings of Nova Scotia, and was given by the Assembly to the clerk of the House who had discovered it.

It is asserted by the Salt Lake Tribune that since the settlement of Utah over 600 murders have been committed by the order of the Mormon priesthood. For all of which crimes only one man has ever been punished, and that after twenty years had elapsed from the commission of the deed.

MINERAL
OIL.
300° FIRE TEST.
Chas. Pratt & Co., New York,
Sole Proprietors and Manufacturers.

To Consumers of High Fire-Test Mineral Oils.

YOUR ATTENTION IS PARTICULARLY INvited to our 300° Fire-Test Oil, called "Pratt's Mineral Colza," which we are now manufacturing expressly for STEAMSHIP, RAILROAD and MILL ILLUMINATION, or for use where an exceedingly high Fire-Test Oil is required. It has already been adopted by many of the Railroads throughout the country, and, by most of the coastwise steamers sailing from New York, whose continuance of its use in preference to all similar Oils is sufficient commendation as to its quality It will not burn well in the ordinary Petroleum Lamp, it being of too heavy gravity for such use; but in the German Student Lamp and those with double wick burners, we guarantee it to give perfect satisfaction producing a pure flame of great brilliancy Our facilities for manufacturing are excellent, and equal to any demand, while the price is much lower than that of any oil in the market of the same character and fire test. The U. S. law in regard to the use of these Oils on passenger steamers is very explicit, as follows:

"Any Oil which will stand a Fire Test of Three Hundred (300°) Degrees Fahrenheit, may be carried as freight or used as stores on any steamer carrying passengers"

We beg to offer the following Certificates, which have been handed us from the very best authorities obtainable, in regard to the test of the Mineral Colza Oil, and they may be considered perfectly reliable:

Report of Prof. S. Dana Hayes, Massachusetts State Assayer.

performed at 5 o'clock and the happy couple take the morning train for a brief tour up the valley. These young people receive congratulations in advance from of friends coupled with the best wishes long life, prosperity and wedded felicity.

RECOVERING.—The unfortunate blacksmith, who was kicked by a horse last week not die as was reported. His injuries are very dangerous nature, but not fatal. He has been removed to St. Vin Hospital, and is slowly recovering. Dr.
who is attending Lyle, is strongly all right.

NEW MAPS.—The postoffice department is in receipt of a dozen large maps, which are marked out to show more particularly the routes throughout the country. The marked in colors, also indicate the num of days carried, also beginning and ter of routes. The maps are a valuable addition to the office.

FISHING BOATS.—An exchange says: "It is estimated eighteen hundred new boats for use the river by the fisheries, have been ordered year, most of which were built in San Francisco and shipped up to the Columbia by vessels. The boats employed are of substantial make and are expensive."

ELEGANT ROOMS.—The rooms in the building just south of the Holton House, formerly occupied by the Portland Club, have been completed and furnished elegantly by Dan Holton. They are generally preferred by commercial tourists, on account of convenience in showing samples.

DAILY MAIL.—Beginning to-day, mails will begin to all points on the lower Columbia, and be carried daily. While the arrangement is in operation, an opportunity is offered to have the OREGONIAN every day at any post-office on the route.

WILL REMAIN.—The two lodges, Excelsior Mystic, K. of P., together with the Jewish lodge, B'nai Brith, will remain at the hall in Quimby's building, the lodges having arranged to that end. The Druids have removed to another locality.

CHARLES WANTED.—The father of Charles Hogan is anxious to hear from him. If this should meet his eye, or any one knowing of his whereabouts, they will confer a favor by addressing Thomas A. Hogan, Portland.

BRIEF NOTES.

Hotels crowded.

No sailing vessels in port.

The "Hungarian Nightingale."

The oyster season is on the wane.

De Murska, the "Queen of Song."

The cucumber season not yet arrived.

Churches well patronized yesterday.

Operatic season opens to-morrow evening.

Twelve U. S. prisoners in the county jail.

Prof. Taylor this evening at Oro Fino Theater.

Boat sailing was extremely fashionable yesterday.

High time to clean out your cellars and back yards.

Straw hats and linen dusters will soon be fashionable.

Al. Fussey is on the west side route again as mail agent.

Immigrants are pouring in. Population is just what this State needs.

No necessity for street lamps these nights—when the skies are cloudless.

No more hunting for the present, but the poor trout are made to suffer.

The petition for a bridge across the Willamette has received over 1,000 signatures.

We should wake up to a realizing sense of the fact that the base ball season is upon us.

A special meeting of the Scandinavian Society will be held at their hall this evening.

Up to the hour of going to press nothing had been heard of the steamer Ajax, now due here.

It is said that a gentleman from San Francisco and a rich widow will soon unite their destinies.

War should be deprecated, but if it must come why should not the farmers of Oregon profit by it.

The tug Edith made a trial trip yesterday. She took several tons of Oswego pig iron as permanent ballast.

Miss Katie Firmin was a passenger on the outgoing steamer. She will return to her home in New York.

Photographs of the members of the two opera companies are to be seen in a great number of show-windows.

Strange thing that the Bender family is continually being captured, and that Charley Ross is continually being found.

The McMinnville and Occident had a close run from Oregon City on Saturday, the former coming in only a short distance ahead.

Even if a boy is always whistling "I want to be an angel," it is just as well to keep the preserved pears on the top shelf of the pantry.

Work has been commenced for the new building to be erected this season at the corner of Taylor and First streets by Mr. C. M. Rohr.

Commencing this morning the steamers Bonita and Welcome will run daily to Clifton and Brookfield, carrying freight and passengers.

Everybody was out yesterday—promenading, boat sailing or driving. Who could blame them? The weather was too enticing to remain indoors.

E. M. Waite of Salem has been awarded the contract for printing the annual proceedings of the R. W. G. L., I. O. O. F., which body will meet here on the 15th of May.

When will wonders cease? A gentleman residing in the upper portion of the city has a number of chickens which have five toes on each foot. Lucky owner; happy bipeds!

A burning flue at the residence of Mrs. W. H. Brackett, corner of East Park and Stark streets, caused quite a commotion in that neighborhood last Saturday. No damage and a good scare.

If owners of cherry and plum trees would lop off the branches which extend out over the sidewalk, there would be less temptation among hoodlums to steal. Think how tempting after the fruit gets ripe.

A gentleman from down the river informs us that there are already several hundred more men among the fisheries than can obtain employment. The supply is in excess of the demand. Rather discouraging to those who are seeking for work.

A letter from Miss Alice Wrenn, the actress reported to have been murdered by South African savages, has been received by her brother in New York city, and bearing date a month subsequent to that of the report, assures her friends of her safety.

We can bear a good deal in the punning line, but it requires Roman fortitude to stand such a one as this: "Square pieces of blue glass, weighing six pounds each, may be used with good effect in dispersing a cluster of tom cats. They give a Pleasant-ton(e) to their squalls."

In the spring the gentle sere-
Naders tinkle their guitars,
And the violins make merry
Music underneath the stars;
Then, next day, the gentle sere-Naders not so jolly are—
For a fellow can't be merry
Playing on the soft catarrh!

AMUSEMENTS.

THE MAGIC ART.—This evening Prof. Taylor will give one of his enjoyable entertainments at Oro Fino Theater. He will be assisted by Madame La Grand who will perform the aerial suspension, and demonstrate to the audience her extraordinary powers of second sight. At the close of the evening's entertainment 100 useful and valuable presents will be distributed to the audience in the most fair and impartial manner, all of which are purchased from merchants of this city. Price of admission; one envelope 25 cents; two envelopes 50 cents.

THE OPERATIC SEASON.—It is wholly needless to remind our citizens that to-morrow evening will be inaugurated at New Market Theater the grand operatic season by Madame De Murska and her talented company of artistes. Of its financial success there can be no doubt. Madame De Murska brings with her a world wide reputation as a lyric artiste of extraordinary vocal breadth and power, and wonderful accomplishments as an actress. Her reportoire is very extensive, including all the sterling operas of the age, and she is assisted by a number of artistes scarcely less finished than this phenomenal queen of song. Necessarily the operatic season will be brief, and only a limited number of performances being promised. No one should fail to see and hear this nightingale, whose marvelous powers of song is capable of calling forth such enthusiastic admiration. Box sheet now open at Gray's Music Store.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

ABALONE JEWELRY.—Mr. R. W. Jackson, whose advertisement appears in another column, arrived here on the last steamer from San Francisco and has opened at H. W. Monnastes', No. 129 First street, a most magnificent assortment of the justly celebrated "Abalone Jewelry." This jewelry is manufactured from the Abalone shell, found along the California coast between San Francisco and San Diego. It is susceptible of receiving a beautiful polish, and can be manufactured into exquisite varieties of jewelry, including brooches, earrings, sleeve buttons, buckles, card cases, jewel boxes, ladies' dress buttons, etc., etc. Mr. Jackson is the sole and exclusive manufacturer of the "Abalone jewelry" on the Pacific coast. His place of business is No. 614 Market street, San Francisco; manufactory 411 Clay and 412 Commercial streets. He has been awarded several gold medals at the Mechanics Fair held in that city, for beauty of design and elegance of workmanship of this jewelry. No idea can be formed of the jewelry, unless it is seen. Give him a call and you are certain to purchase.

PERSONAL.

Col. J. M. Wilson left here a few days ago for Astoria, Point Adams and Cape Hancock. He will go down on the lighthouse tender Shubrick to San Francisco, touching at the various stations along the coast. Col. Wilson will probably be absent several weeks.

A SAD CALAMITY.

Our regular correspondent, writing from Astoria, under date of the 20th, furnishes the following particulars of the probable death, by drowning, of three men—Lieut. Knapp, Dr. Andrews and Mr. Moore:

It is my sad duty to inform you of a most melancholy and lamentable occurrence, which has doubtless resulted in the death, by drowning, of three most estimable gentlemen, and has overshadowed this community like a dark pall, with unfeigned sorrow. Yesterday, Lieut. J. L. Knapp, Dr. Andrews and Mr. J. S. Moore, all of Fort Stevens, visited our town on business connected with the government, coming up in a small row boat. About 7:30 P. M., the wind blowing fresh from the nor'west, they embarked on their return, since which time nothing has been seen of the unfortunate men. This afternoon another boat arrived from the fort to ascertain the cause of their continued absence, Col. Miller, commander of the fort, thinking they might have been unexpectedly detained in town.

Col. Miller himself shortly afterwards arrived on the Varuna, and, on ascertaining the fact of their departure on the previous evening (surmising that some accident had happened), immediately took steps for a thorough search, if, haply, they might be found alive, and if not, that some reliable evidence might be found of their probable unhappy fate. The lighthouse tender Shubrick, which was lying at Flavel's wharf, immediately got up steam and was dispatched out over the bar to rescue them in case they had drifted to sea. The steamer Varuna was sent off in another direction, and the little steam launch Katata was ordered to explore the shallower waters around the mouth of Young's river and the Skipanon. About 8 o'clock this evening the Katata returned with the news that at the mouth of Adair's Slough they discovered a man hauling a swamped boat up on the beach. This proved to be the same boat in which Lieut. Knapp and his party took passage on their return to the fort. The mast, sail one oar and sprit had floated ashore with the boat. The searching party on the Katata, eagerly and fondly clinging to the only hope left—that their unfortunate friends and comrades had reached shore, as well as the boat, and made their way overland to their home at the fort—took the boat in tow and headed the little steamer thitherward. But, alas! nothing has been seen or heard of them, and we are now forced to the sad conclusion that all we can do is to institute a careful search for their remains in order to give them an honorable interment.

This terrible affliction has fallen with stunning effect on the hearts of many warm and sympathizing friends of the highly respected gentlemen we are thus suddenly called to mourn.

Lieut. Knapp, during his long residence at the fort, has endeared himself to all the older residents in this community by his gentlemanly bearing and amiable disposition. He was courageous to a fault, fearing no danger by sea or land, and it is feared that this very intrepidity led to his and his comrades' untimely end.

Mr. J. S. Moore had charge of the sutler's store at the fort. He leaves a young wife and three children. Her grief is distracting, and is shared by a host of his friends in this city.

Dr. Andrews was an estimable gentleman and had the reputation of being a very skillful physician and surgeon. He had but recently been appointed to the position left vacant by the resignation of Dr. Durant.

Preparations have been made by Col. Miller for a thorough search to-morrow for further certain evidence of their fate.

MADAME DE MURSKA.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

It afforded me much pleasure when I heard that De Murska was to come here for the purpose of giving a series of concerts and opera. During a recent sojourn in San Francisco I had the pleasure of listening to this far-famed cantatrice. Her execution of the most difficult music with such perfection is something marvelous. I have heard many in this city ask of her merits as an artiste, she being to them unknown. To them, I can safely say, that a rare treat will be offered them, she being one of the greatest artistes that has yet visited this coast. Yours, &c. H.

Till then chronic diseases of men and women will be treated in Portland as usual. An accomplished lady assistant to give baths to ladies and assist in their treatment always in the office.

ACKERMAN BROS.

Opened their new and elegant stock of clothing and gents' furnishing goods Saturday evening. Their stock is entirely new, fresh, and no remnants or old styles amongst their stock. Go and examine their new and fine stock of goods before purchasing elsewhere. Their prices are so low that they cannot be undersold in the State. Remember the place, corner of First and Washington streets.

HEMORRHOIDS OR PILES.

Dr. T. F. Wightman, the originator and proprietor of the "Wightman Process" for the cure of Piles, blind or bleeding, is at present in San Francisco, California, where all letters should be addressed. Persons desiring the "process" can have it sent C. O. D. by express. The success that Dr. T. F. Wightman had a year since in Oregon in curing the diseases of the rectum will be his recommendation. I refer to the following patients in Oregon—I have no "agents": Jno. M. Bacon, P. M., Oregon City; E. M. Waite, Salem; A. Jennings, engineer O. & C. R. R., and many others.

Address Dr. T. F. Wightman, Cosmopolitan Hotel, San Francisco, Cal.

Scotching Malaria.

It is a fact widely and amply attested that where the powerful and pernicious drug, quinine, and other mineral poisons, administered as remedies for fever and ague and bilious remittents, fail to yield more than temporary relief to the sufferer, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters scotches those tremendous epidemics most thoroughly, and by strengthening the system and regulating its functions, protects it against malarial attacks. No resident of a locality where the above maladies prevail, or where they are likely to break out in consequence of the poisoning of the atmosphere by noxious exhalations, should fail to take practical cognizance of the above important truth, and by a timely use of the Bitters avoid the ravages of maladies so disastrous to the physical constitution. There is not in existence a finer tonic, corrective and defensive cordial.

A Fragrant Breath and Pearly Teeth

Are easily attained, and those who fail to avail themselves of the means, should not complain, when accused of gross neglect. The SOZODONT will speedily eradicate the cause of a foul breath beautifying and preserving the teeth to the oldest age.

"Horse-Men," and others who pretend to know say that the following directions had better be observed in Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders. Give a horse a tablespoonful every night for a week; the same every other night for 4 or 6 nights; the same for a milch cow, and twice as much for an ox. The addition of a little fine salt will be an advantage.

We have heard recently of several severe cases of spinal disease cured by Johnson's Anodyne Liniment; one case of a man forty-five years old, who had not done a day's work for four years. The back should first be washed, then rubbed with a coarse towel. Apply the Liniment cold, and rub in well with the hand.

Sensible Advice.

You are asked every day through the columns of newspapers and by your druggist to use something for Dyspepsia and Liver complaint that you know nothing about. You get discouraged spending money with but little success. Now, to give you satisfactory proof that GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER will cure you of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, with all its effects, such as sour stomach, Sick Headache, Habitual Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Heart-burn, Water brash, coming up of food after eating, low spirits, &c., we ask you to go to your druggist and get a Sample Bottle of GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER for 10 cents and try it, or a Regular Size for 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you. Agents, Crane & Brigham, Wholesale Druggists, San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 20.—The Call to-morrow will publish an interview with Senator [illegible]. He said, regarding the electoral [illegible], that the members were chosen [illegible] of their political bearings, and that [illegible] the result would have been par[illegible] was disposed to give the Hayes [illegible] fair trial, and hoped he would secure [illegible] in the South while protecting the [illegible] of all parties and classes. He would [illegible] his policy prematurely, nor con[illegible] in advance. He counseled patience [illegible] and thought there would be [illegible] opposition among Republicans in [illegible] any policy abandoning the rights [illegible] or white Republicans in the South. The alleged matricide is about [illegible] of age and his trial will take place [illegible].

[illegible] Instructions to a Jury.

[illegible], April 20.—In his argument for [illegible] trial to-day, Mr. Hund[illegible] a great extent, devoted his efforts to [illegible] upon the prejudices of the jury and [illegible] the guilt of accused because his [illegible] was committed against Chinamen. The [illegible], in his charge, warned the jury to pay [illegible] attention to such issues, but to be governed solely by the evidence adduced. The [illegible] seemed to give almost universal satis[illegible].

[illegible] met at 7 this evening for the trial of [illegible] Slaughter for burning the building [illegible] Shew, on Chico creek. Prisoner saw [illegible] for himself, and at the request of his [illegible] Judge Clark, pleaded guilty to the [illegible] of arson in the second degree. An[illegible] charge of arson was continued for the [illegible]. Next Wednesday has been fixed upon [illegible] sentence of both Jones and Slaughter. Mahoney Holbaum comes up for trial in the morning.

Guilty of Arson.

OROVILLE, Cal., April 21.—The court met at [illegible] o'clock this morning to try the case of A. [illegible] for an attempt to commit arson, in [illegible] oil to set fire to old Chinatown [illegible]. A jury was obtained in less than [illegible] time, and the court took a recess until one o'clock, in order to give counsel an opportunity to make arrangements for the cases to follow.

Holderbaum has just pleaded guilty of an attempt to commit arson in the second degree. He receives his sentence next Wednesday. The courts meet again Monday at 2 o'clock to try Mahoney for the same offense.

The late fire above Chico destroyed $12,000 worth of property and has killed out any maudlin sentiment in favor of the prisoners, and they will all likely get the punishment their crimes merit.

Shipping and Market Reports.

NEW YORK, April 21.—Although Saturday is generally a quiet day at the wharves of California ships, yet to-day has been an exception, and considerable activity is manifest, which is due to the stormy weather of two or three days past, during which time very little freight was sent down. To-day, however, the shipments are sufficient to enable the Sovereign of the Seas to finish her loading and enable her agents to announce her departure for Wednesday next. The Friedlander made good headway and will finish loading Monday. Rates for freight remain very firm and tend upward. Current quotations for measurement of goods, 10@30 cent per foot; weight, $11 per ton; for bar iron, $10 per ton; for nails, 45@50 cents per keg; for whiskey, $2 25 per barrel; canned goods, 27½ cents per case; lumber, $25@30 per M; plaster and rosin, $1 25 per barrel; dry goods, ¾ cent per pound. Tonnage is held at very much higher figures, and for all vessels taken hereafter for this trade, higher rates will be demanded of shippers. As an instance of the views of ship owners, it may be stated that the owners of the Golden Fleece ask $30 000 for charter to San Francisco, and state that unless they can get this amount they prefer to lay her up. The only engagement to note is the ship Valparaiso, now on the voyage from Manila. Sutton's line of freights at Philadelphia continue moderately active, and the Tam O'Shanter is doing a very fair business.

Boston—Market continues slow and unchanged. Markets to-day generally active. Flour continues in demand and prices fully ten cents higher. Wheat also active and 1@2 cents higher, with moderate demand for export, the prices generally being above views of exporters. The stock of good prime spring, the bulk of which is No. 2 Milwaukee, is all held by one firm. Yesterday some small lots sold at $1 70, and to-day small lots of the same at $1 74.

The wool market continues very dull. Spring California arriving in more liberal quantities and meets with some attention. Fall dull at easier prices. Thirty thousand pounds new spring were sold on private terms. At Boston the wool market is more active, and the sales of California have been larger than for some time, and is chiefly fall, in range of 16@18c, at which price a large Rhode Island house made large purchases. Sales include 75,000 lbs new spring at 24@25c; 34,700 lbs fall at 15@26c. Dry goods show some improvement, and several lots of bleached sheetings have been taken by California buyers for shipment by shipper.

Hides continue very firm at an advance; 700 dry California sold at 21¼ gold at 60 days.

Quicksilver down to 47½@48, with small sales at these figures. Borax easier with better inquiry. Leather very active at an advance of 1@2c. California, 21@25c. Petroleum firmer. Spirits turpentine very dull. Sugars very active and the advance of refined fully five-eighths of a cent during the past week.

Wheat in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky.

CHICAGO, April 21.—The Times has nearly seven columns of crop reports from the great wheat-growing sections of the Mississippi and Ohio valleys, concerning the condition of winter wheat. A larger acreage than usual has been sown in all quarters, with fine prospects of an abundant harvest. The Southwest is especially hopeful, and the Northwest has no fears, except from the grasshoppers, which, it is thought, will be less destructive than heretofore. The Kansas farmers think they have [illegible] so early that they will not be able to await the coming crops.

More Crop Reports.

CINCINNATI, April 21.—The Commercial publishes crop reports from two hundred points in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, showing that the wheat crop is generally in unusually good condition, and the prospect good for more than an average yield.

GENERAL NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Another Version of the Leo Disaster.

NEW YORK, April 21.—Purser Witchman, of [illegible] steamer Leo, burned early on the morn[illegible] of April 3d, 80 miles south of Tybe[illegible] Island, tells a graphic story of the disaster to [illegible] of the Times. He says about thre[illegible] while a terrific sea was rolling, the[illegible] discovered some freight between deck[illegible] had got loose and was pitching about [illegible] hatches were opened to secure the fre[illegible] to the horror of the crew, forc[illegible] of fire shot out. The fierceness of th[illegible] fanning the flames which had already [illegible] considerable headway, [illegible] useless. Capt. Daniels ordered the [illegible] lowered, and the captain, with [illegible] hurried to the forward deck to [illegible] raft, which was in one captain's cabin [illegible] dispatched a gang under command of the [illegible] engineer, to assist in lowering the boat [illegible] fire had increased fearfully, and breaking [illegible] amidships, entirely cut off com[illegible] between. [illegible] middle aged ladies, the two Miss[illegible] natives of [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] they would not exceed $187,860.

A Youthful Homicide.

[illegible], April 22.—The case of Stephen Cox, [illegible] of six years, who was shot and killed [illegible] by Dudley Kimball, four and a half [illegible] old, not six as first reported, is a general [illegible] to-day. It is conceded that young [illegible] fired the fatal shot with well defined [illegible] to do injury, but it seems incredible [illegible] could have realized the full extent of the [illegible]

Washed Away.

[illegible], Pa., April 22.—Last night two [illegible] choppers' cabins in the mountains near [illegible] Haven, were washed away by a sudden [illegible], and six laborers drowned.
